NextMedia and WorldBand Media to Bring 24x7 South Asian Programming to Northern California's South Bay Area via HD Radio(TM) Broadcasting

SAN JOSE, Calif., Sept 15, 2008 /PRNewswire via COMTEX/ -- NextMedia Group Inc. and WorldBand Media LLC have announced a unique strategic partnership to bring leading-edge ethnic content to Northern California's South Bay Area. Utilizing NextMedia Group's 106.5 FM KEZR HD Radio signal out of San Jose, these companies will strive to meet the underserved radio needs of this areas South Asian population. Starting later this fall, listeners will be able to tune their radio dials to 106.5-HD2 to receive this innovative programming.

"By making our HD Radio signal available to WorldBand Media, we are able to serve an even broader audience in San Jose," said Eric W. Neumann, CFO of NextMedia Group. "NextMedia Group is proud to help drive innovation that allows us to provide a wider range of content and diversity of formats, specifically that of the South Asian community, which is a significant and growing market segment in San Jose."

"WorldBand Media is extremely pleased to have partnered with NextMedia Group to bring our unique blend of 24x7, CD quality South Asian radio to this region", said Prabha Selvadurai, WorldBand Media's CEO. "With a deep-rooted and growing presence in the South Bay area it is surprising that this community has been underserved for so long. Through this partnership we will ensure this community's radio needs are more than exceeded from this point on."

The South Bay area is host to hundreds of thousands of South Asians, largely centered in Santa Clara, Alameda and San Mateo counties.

Specific details of the partnership were not released. For more information contact the above referenced parties.
